1. Noice! She is: awesome. I love her blog. Not the Soth flavor, but a delicious and distinct flavor all its own.

Blogging photogaphers is a trend I am digging.

3. Alec, I am really impressed by your blogging – frequency and quality! Its like a part time job? But I do get this sense that blogging is becoming quite important to the photo community. Cheerios!!! Wm.

4. I agree. On Zoe, the featured blogs and the photo blogging community. It's all pretty rad.
