The current issue looks into the birth of a new state in Berlin and ventures deep into the psychic territory of reclusiveness with Alec Soth, and then follows Miami-based artist Christy Gast to meccas of masculinity. --Sylvie Fortin, excerpt, Letter from the Editor

TABLE OF CONTENTS:

On Density, Flow and Destabilizing the Visual : Dennis McNulty

John Gayer talks with Dennis McNulty about his use of sound to trigger spatial knowledge in installations and performances.

Blocked Escape Routes: Alec Soth's Broken Manual and the Urge to Disappear

Karsten Lund delves into Alec Soth's recent work to ponder the contradictory role of escape in contemporary culture.

Truly Awesome: Christy Gast's Alter-Tourism of Uncertain Landmarks

Ruba Katrib follows Christy Gast's incursions into masculine territory -- queering performances that yield a broad range of interpretive paths.

Birth of a State: A Distant Report on the First Congress of the NSK in Berlin

Pil + Galia Kollektiv ponder the still uncertain status of the NSK State to find that, nearly 20 years after its formation, it remains a vital proposition.
