Martin Parr might have 1300 members in his Flickr group, but I'll always have mom:

1. However, the 'Cute Kittens' and 'Puppy Love' groups are even more popular than Parr's.

I don't know what to think about that.

9. HA! Mom's are the besy.
And they deserve to be called everyday.

Martin Parr? Well - not so much.

10. "Quite often people will add a comment to my photos saying "very Martin Parr". Well I love his work and I know a lot of you do too. So if you have an image that you think could have been taken by the man himself then this is the place to post it. " via the Flickr Parr group intro.

I'd be curious to know how Mr. Parr might feel about his Flickr fan base...

I don't quite know what to think about it, but thinking about it is somewhat interesting.

12. To see Charles with "Charles", makes me recall when I first saw "Charles" and thought that is THE photograph. Would we have all this without those model planes, the jumpsuit, the fogged eyeglasses, the balaclava...?
